OTTAWA CAMPAIGN — MAY 10 — JUNE 4

U.J.A. SETS MINIMUM GOAL OF $252,775. FOR ISRAEL, OVERSEAS RELIEF & HOME NEEDS

SHAVUOTH OBSERVED MAY 20 AND 21

Shavuoth, the Feast of Weeks, will be ushered in this year at sundown, Tuesday evening, May 19 and will continue for two days until sundown, Thursday, May 21.

Shavuoth is an ancient holiday which was originally observed as an agricultural festival marking the ending of the wheat harvest. It is therefore known as Hag Hakatzir. It was one of the three pilgrimage festivals when the people went to Jerusalem, this time bringing first fruits of the season as an offering to the Temple. For this reason it is also known as Hag Habikkurim.

A great historical event, the giving of the Ten Commandments on Mount Sinai has become associated traditionally with Shavuoth. For this reason, it is called Zman Matan Toratenu (the time of giving of the Torah).

Shavuoth has meaning for us today in that the ancient ties of the Jew to the soil are again true in Israel and that the Torah was and always will be the strongest thread binding together the Jewish people of the world.

There are special prayers and services for Shavuoth and it is customary to decorate both home and Synagogues with greens for the holiday. Dairy foods are eaten in the home and varied Bikkurim festivities are conducted by groups of all kinds.

Memorial Services for the departed will be recited on the second day of the holiday, Thursday, May 21.

RELIGIOUS ITEMS TAX FREE

Readers of the Bulletin will be pleased to learn that Rabbi Samuel M. Burstein assisted the Commissioner of Tariffs in the preparation of an illustrated list of Jewish religious objects, their definitions and uses, which formed the basis for their subsequent reclassification as customs tax free items.

In addition to Scroll Sets, Chanukah Candlesticks, Kiddush Sets, Mezuzah Boxes and Havdalah Sets listed in the preceding issue of this Bulletin as duty free, we have been informed that Talismans and Talis Bags are now dutiable at 10% rather than 27%, and that skull caps of all types are now included under the same category as "caps, berets, etc. of religious orders" with a reduced tariff.

ISRAEL'S FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

(Excerpts from the Special Broadcast by Rabbi Simon L. Eckstein over CKOY on Sunday, April 19, 1953 in commemoration of the Fifth Anniversary of the State of Israel)

Surely you see and feel this newness — a new esteem for the very name of Jew; the blue white flag of Israel fluttering proudly in the breeze alongside the banners of the other members of the United Nations, representatives of an Israeli cabinet tour our land, bringing us official greetings from the Holy Land, a free Jewish people standing before the nations of the world with dignity and self respect, the homeless wandering Jew driven from land to land now at home on his ancient ancestral soil where he welcomes his brothers with open arms, a land where the soul of our people will flourish in genuine creativity. Yes, though five years have passed since that historic day when Israel proclaimed its Independence — and yet are we still tinged with emotion and our hearts overflow with prayer. How well fitting indeed are the words of the Psalmist "when the Lord returned our people to Zion we were like dreamers." Oh what a world of meaning in those words of "Israel Independence Day."

Our age is typical of these rapid changes from darkness to light. The struggle between the forces of evil and decency has surely never been as close as it has been during the past world-shaking decade. This is especially true of the Jewish world which was literally shaken to its foundations, seemingly headed for oblivion and then came the swift inexorable process of Jewish redemption.

We Jews who live in Canada have been fated to witness the darkest and the brightest moments in Jewish history. But a few years ago we were helpless spectators of an unrestrained madness which brought agony and death to our people. An enfeebled world blunted by compromise permitted Hitler and his bestial hordes to destroy six million Jews — one third of our people.

Our pleas and protests were in vain. Nothing was left to us but to hope and pray that there might arise from this frightfulness a new Jewish people safe and independent on its own national soil. This week we give thanks that we have been spared to witness the realization of that hope.

There is no parallel in all history of a people rising literally from the ashes of deliberate and calculated mass-extinction to the glory of independence.

And this victory is due to the fact that the Jewish people always had a mathematics of their own. They did not go by the yardstick of history. The word impossible was never found in our dictionary. Where the verdict of human calculation clashed with the Jewish will to live, then with the help of the Almighty we changed the rules and forced history to conform to our own timetable and today, thank G-d we are able to observe with pride, humility and gratitude the creation of a new and glorious chapter in the history of our people, the rebirth of the State of Israel.

What treachery has been perpetrated to thwart us in our efforts. How they have hounded us and tortured us hoping that we would abandon and sacrifice our ideal. There were years in our history when darkness enveloped us and when everything appeared hopeless. But the Jewish people is an am kshay oref, a stiff-necked people who could only look straight ahead to a better future stubbornly clinging to its dream of Zion reborn. Our valiant pioneers the chalutzim, despite malaria-infested swamps, despite insuperable obstacles proceeded with ploughshare in one hand and with sword in the other defending themselves against marauders while tenaciously persevering in Binyan Haaretz in ploughing, in planting and in the building of the Holy Land.

We must be conscious that there is much to be done in positive and constructive activity. There is much that each of us must do and can do. There is the challenge of helping Israel to sustain a sound economy. Through the United Jewish Appeal and through the purchase of the Bonds of Israel we will be manifesting our faith in Israel's future whilst identifying ourselves as co-responsible members of our peoples destiny.

TO APPEAR AS GUEST ARTIST AT U.J.A. INAUGURAL DINNER

EDITH GORDON

Edith Gordon, Jewish Centre Lecture Bureau 1951 Auditions Winner and talented recording and stage star will be the guest artist at the Inaugural Dinner of the 1953 United Jewish Appeal to be held on Sunday evening, May 10, in the Jewish Community Centre.

Edith Gordon's reviews are peppered with such phrases as "excellent voice" . . . "delightful stage presence" . . . "extraordinarily beautiful girl" . . . "colorful and expressive singing" . . . "taste and charm" . . . captivating comedienne."

Up and down the east coast and as far as Cleveland, in such music centres as New York, Washington, Philadelphia, Boston, and other cities, the critics have been unanimous in praise of Edith Gordon's voice and musicianship. But what is just as striking about her notices, and perhaps even more interesting, is that they repeatedly cite her charm and skill as an actress.

Miss Gordon had the leading role in Gian-Carlo Menotti's "The Telephone" on Broadway, has appeared frequently on radio and has done considerable recording work.

In the operetta and musical comedy field, her most recent successes have been Evalina in "Bloomer Girl" at Cape Cod Music Circus and Nadina in the "Chocolate Soldier" with the St. Paul Civic Opera.
